It is our great pleasure to announce that based on the votes InterContinental® Budapest won the prestigious “Hungary’s Leading Business Hotel” award as recognition of the hotel’s achievement the previous year. After winning this esteemed prize in 2014 and 2015, it is a great honour to receive the award for the third time.

Claus Geisselmann, General Manager of InterContinental® Budapest says “becoming Hungary’s Leading Business Hotel for the third time is a great honour for us and an amazing acknowledgement of the attitude and work our colleagues do for our guests from all over the world day by day. Whilst this certificate makes us proud it also challenges us to not only maintain but also exceed the standard high level of service and continuously look for new and different ways to be able to achieve the best results in the following years.”

This year the InterContinental® Budapest has been also honoured by the TripAdvisor online tourism platform – according to travellers’ feedback the hotel received the „Traveller’s Choice” certificate again, which acknowledges our staff’s outstanding work attitude and commitment to guests. We would like to thank all of our guests for their support and for those who voted for us in one of the previously mentioned polls.
