

More than 45 countries' collaboration to support local foundations

8th diplomatic fair at InterContinental® Budapest

This year, on the 2nd of December, more 45 countries will be represented by their embassies to pioneer a good case on the 8th annual Diplomatic Fair at InterContinental® Budapest. The event is organized by the Diplomatic Spouses of Budapest, where food and drink will be served from the participating countries, and stalls will showcase specialties and souvenirs from around the world. Visitors may also enjoy an exciting opening entertainment which will feature music and dance production. The Diplomatic Fair is not just an entertaining international day for the whole family, but it also raises funds for Hungarian charities. All proceeds of the fair will be donated to the following Hungarian charities: A Mi Házunk „Our House” foundation in Esztergom, Special Education and Development Institute for children, Órások Foundation and last but not least, Pető Institute.

The Diplomatic Fair will take place on the 2nd of December from 10am to 4pm on the 1st Floor of InterContinental® Budapest, the entrance fee is 500 HUF/adult. Because of road closures the hotel will be accessible on foot.

We kindly inform our guests, that photos will be taken on this event that can be used for marketing purposes on various online and offline surfaces in the future.
